

Pioneering Forest Machine Operator courses a success

This intensive and practical course offers four training places and addresses all aspects of mechanised harvesting and forwarding operations.