

Pioneering project uses nature to reduce flood risk in Weardale

Flood protection: A pioneering Environment Agency-led natural flood management scheme to bolster flood protection of County Durham communities is complete.