

Places of Worship Protective Security Funding Scheme open for applications

Places of worship and associated faith community centres are now able to apply for an increased pot of funding to help improve their physical security against potential hate attacks.