

Planning permission granted for Kendal flood defence work

The improvements to New Road flood defence work in Kendal were made following feedback from the community and through consultation.