

Plans approved for a new 'aquagreen' that will reduce flood damage in east Hull

An Environment Agency project to create a large 'aquagreen' that will reduce flood risk to over 870 properties and key infrastructure in east Hull has been given the go ahead.