

Plans to improve flood defences in York's Museum Gardens approved

A flood alleviation scheme, which will better protect properties in the Marygate area, has been given the green light by City of York Council's planning officers