

Plant a tree seed and decorate a plant pot in Kendal with local artist

The Environment Agency is inviting Kendal children, families and local residents to get involved in a family fun day during half term planting tree seeds and painting plant pots as part of their tree planting efforts through...