

PM call with European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen: 7 November 2020

Press release

Prime Minister Boris Johnson spoke with European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson today spoke with European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen for a stock take on the progress in the negotiations between the UK and the EU.

The Prime Minister set out that, while some progress had been made in recent discussions, significant differences remain in a number of areas, including the so-called level playing field and fish.

The Prime Minister and President agreed that their negotiating teams would continue talks in London next week, beginning on Monday, in order to redouble efforts to reach a deal.

They agreed to remain in personal contact about the negotiations.

Published 7 November 2020