

PM call with President Sisi: 18 December 2019

The Prime Minister spoke to Egypt's President Sisi, who congratulated him on his success in the recent election.

The leaders committed to strengthening the relationship between the UK and Egypt in a range of areas, including trade and security cooperation.

They looked forward to meeting next at the UK-Africa Investment Summit in London in January.

Published 18 December 2019