

PM call with Prime Minister of Iraq: 7 November 2021

Press release

Prime Minister Boris Johnson spoke to the Prime Minister of Iraq, Mustafa Al-Kadhimi.

The Prime Minister spoke to the Prime Minister of Iraq, Mustafa Al-Kadhimi, this afternoon.

He strongly condemned the attack on the Prime Minister's home in Baghdad and offered his sympathies to those injured.

He made clear that the UK stands by the Iraqi people and supports Prime Minister Khadimi's efforts to form a government following elections, which is vital for the long term stability of Iraq.

The leaders also discussed COP26 and welcomed opportunities to work together on tackling climate change.

Published 7 November 2021