

PM: Closer international collaboration will be key to smashing the criminal gangs who profit from migration misery

A major upgrade in international co-operation is needed to tackle the vile criminal gangs who trade in people's misery for profit, the Prime Minister will say in Hungary today (7 November).