

PM says step up in defence spending can safeguard the future of NATO

PM Keir Starmer has underlined the UK's cast iron commitment to spending 2.5% of GDP on defence to respond to growing threats, ahead of a NATO summit.