

Police Licensing Office and Complaints Against Police Reporting Centre resume normal services from today

In view of the first phase of the relaxation of social distancing measures announced by the Government, the Police Licensing Office and the Complaints Against Police Reporting Centre resume normal services starting from today (April 21).

Please visit the following webpages for the details of the latest arrangements at the respective offices:

Police Licensing Office:

https://www.police.gov.hk/ppp_en/11_useful_info/licences

Complaints Against Police Office:

https://www.police.gov.hk/ppp_en/11_useful_info/cap.html