

Police officers will enter Kwai Fong MTR station to respond to a report made by MTRC

A large group of protestors are currently gathering inside the Kwai Fong MTR station. They have sprayed paint and caused damages to the facilities therein. Such acts disturb the public peace and threaten the safety of the citizens, including reporters and MTR staff members, at the scene.

In response to a report made by the MTRC (MTR Corporation) , Police officers will soon enter the station to assist MTRC to handle the case.
