The Police Recruitment Centre officially opened today (October 27). The opening ceremony was officiated by the Commissioner of Police, Mr Siu Chak-ye.

The Police spokesman said, "The Force adopts a proactive recruitment strategy to attract high-calibre candidates. The establishment of the Police Recruitment Centre aims to provide the public with an additional channel to learn more about police work and obtain recruitment information. It will also facilitate applicants by providing them with face-to-face consultation and experience session for selection process."

The newly established Police Recruitment Centre provides multiple services, including on-site interview, making written examination or interview appointment, eye-sight test, handgrip strength test, recruitment-related enquiry service, virtual reality simulated experience of shooting. Besides, the recruitment centre will arrange regular recruitment talks and police-related thematic exhibitions. Interested groups or schools may e-mail to rec-centre@police.gov.hk for enquiries and reservation.

The spokesman added, "The Force will continue to strengthen publicity in order to attract more talented candidates to join the Force, such as organising Recruitment Experience and Assessment Days and deploying a promotion vehicle 'Police Mobile Recruitment Station' to connect with potential candidates. In order to attract more students who will graduate soon to join the Force, the 'Police University Recruitment Express (PURE)' was held in September and October, and the Force will continue to participate in the Education & Careers Expo."

Other officiating guests attending the opening ceremony were the Deputy Commissioner of Police (Management), Mr Chow Yat-ming; and the Commandant of the Hong Kong Auxiliary Police Force, Mr Yang Joe-tsi.

The Police Recruitment Centre, situated on the 1st floor of Arsenal House at Police Headquarters in Wan Chai, will open from 11am to 8pm between Tuesdays and Saturdays and from 11am to 5pm on Sundays and public holidays. It will close on Mondays, the New Year's Day, the first to third day of the Lunar New Year, Easter, Christmas and the day after Christmas.
