

Police spare no effort in safeguarding national security

The Hong Kong Police Force (HKPF) welcomed the passage of the Safeguarding National Security Bill on its Third Reading by the Legislative Council today (March 19) to improve the legal system and enforcement mechanisms for the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region to safeguard national security.

As a pillar for safeguarding national security, the HKPF, after the enactment of the law, will render full support to its implementation, ensuring that laws are observed and strictly enforced, so as to bring offenders to account and that national security is free from threats. Under the premise of "security brings prosperity", the society will be prosperous and stable, while focusing on developing the economy and improving livelihoods, enabling citizens to live well and thrive.
