

Policy Address consultation launched

The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government today (July 10) launched the public consultation exercise for the 2019 Policy Address. The Chief Executive, Mrs Carrie Lam; the Chief Secretary for Administration, Mr Matthew Cheung Kin-chung; and the Financial Secretary, Mr Paul Chan, will meet representatives from different sectors to listen to their views.

"To continue to develop the economy and improve people's livelihood, we have to make plans together and work in concert. I sincerely invite members of the public to give their views on the Policy Address, so that we can harness the collective wisdom and insights to formulate policy initiatives to meet the needs of our people. My team and I will humbly listen to all walks of life, and respond in my third Policy Address," Mrs Lam said.
