

Policy paper: Government response to OEP's report on the implementation of the water framework directive regulations and river basin management planning

Provides an initial response to the OEP's report on the implementation of the water framework directive regulations and river basin management planning and advises Parliament that a further full response will follow.