

Policy paper: Integrated pollution prevention and control: developing and setting of Best Available Techniques (BAT) provisional common framework

How the UK government and devolved governments propose to work together on the regulation, control and prevention of pollution from industry.