

Policy paper: Waste prevention programme for England

The programme sets out the roles and actions for government and others to reduce the amount of waste produced in England.