

Potential victims of travel agency shut down by courts are urged to come forward

Company failed to pay accommodation bills and displayed ABTA and ATOL logos despite having no affiliation with either organisation.