

Premier League Broadcast Rights – Potential Exclusion Order

Letter to the Premier League on behalf of the Business Secretary and Culture Secretary setting out that the Business Secretary is minded to make an Exclusion Order regarding the Premier League's domestic broadcast rights, and inviting representations – including correspondence from the Premier League on the proposal.

Letter from the Minister for Sport to the Chairs of the Digital, Culture, Media and Sport Select Committee and the Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy Committee setting out the final decision to make an Exclusion Order regarding the Premier League's domestic broadcast rights after careful consideration of the representations received.