

Press release: £1 million to support transition to future farming system

New projects funded to provide farmers with tailored on-farm advice to help them prepare for transition away from Common Agricultural Policy