

Press release: £10.7 million in funding for local authorities to improve air quality

Councils across England have been awarded a share of £10.7 million to clean up air in local communities.