

Press release: £12.5m for robotics and automation to boost sustainable farming

Innovative projects will receive funding to develop technologies to predict strawberry yield, increase vineyard productivity and optimise harvesting schedules.