

Press release: £14 million to unlock agricultural innovation

Over £14 million is being made available in two new competition rounds to back research into innovative farming solutions.