

Press release: 4-year ban for director who abused text message regulations

Director of data and lead generating service for financial sector banned for four years after failing to ensure company complied with text message regulations.