

Press release: A Christmas reminder of support available in child abduction cases

Support from the Foreign & Commonwealth Office (FCO) is available for people affected by international parental child abduction.