

Press release: A helping hand to set up new businesses

Over 200,000 new businesses have used a new cross-government service allowing new start-ups to register their company and register for tax at the same time.