

Press release: Accountant banned for assisting client to defraud creditors

An accountant has been disqualified from running companies after he helped one of his clients to defraud creditors of more than £1.65 million.