

Press release: Additional funding for research on diseases spread by mosquitoes and ticks

An extra £2.35 million has been announced to improve the UK's research capacity and capability around vector-borne disease.