

Press release: Angler without a fishing licence pleads guilty to obstructing an officer

An angler has been fined over £200 after admitting fishing without a rod licence and obstructing an Environment Agency officer at a lake in Norfolk.