

Press release: Birth defects prevented by fortifying flour with folic acid

New legislation being introduced today will require millers and flour producers to fortify non-wholemeal wheat flour with folic acid from the end of 2026.