

Press release: Boost for UK fishing industry with new infrastructure projects

£20 million awarded to modernise and improve infrastructure across the seafood sector with a further £30 million available from today