

Press release: Businesses urged to pay suppliers on time or risk losing out on government contracts

Businesses have been warned by the government that they must pay their suppliers on time or face being prevented from winning further government contracts.