

Press release: Carlsberg pollution leads to restorative charity donations

Two environmental charities will receive donations after the Environment Agency accepted an Enforcement Undertaking following two pollution incidents in the River Nene in Northampton.