

Press release: CMA sets out investment consultants reforms

The CMA has today announced a range of reforms to the investment consultancy and fiduciary management sector after finding competition problems.