

Press release: Court shuts down fraudulent interior design company

Interior design company has been wound up in by the courts after it was found to be used as a vehicle to fraudulently secure credit.