

Press release: Court winds-up asset investment company

A London-based company that offered unauthorised investment opportunities to the public has been wound-up in court.