

Press release: Courts to pilot more flexible hours for the benefit of the public

Early and late sittings will be piloted in civil and family courts, giving people greater access to hearings that can fit around their busy lives.