

Press release: Cutting-edge farming projects to get share of £30 million

Projects include genetic research to reduce methane emissions from cows and the use of drones to monitor animals.