

Press release: Delivering the water quality we all want to see

The Government has reinforced its commitment to improving water quality including through plans for water companies to eliminate harm from sewage discharges.