

Press release: Drivers urged to clean up their act as part of national litter campaign

Highways England today called on drivers to join them in doing their bit to reduce litter levels on the nation's motorways.