

Press release: Drought planning stepped up amid potential hottest June on record

Plans to maintain water supply resilience have been discussed by National Drought Group members amidst ongoing hot and dry weather.