

Press release: Environment Agency announces new national salmon and sea trout byelaws

Environment Agency introduce restrictions on fishing in England in response to the international decline in migratory salmon stocks.