

Press release: Environment Agency launches Flood Warning Service in Charnwood

The new service will benefit close to 700 properties with flood warnings helping residents and businesses knowing what action to take in event of a flood.