

Press release: Environment Secretary sets out animal health and welfare support for livestock farmers

Speaking at the NFU Conference, George Eustice set out plans for government funded vet visits, grants for welfare improvements, and health and welfare priorities for each sector.