

Press release: Environmental performance of business continues to improve report shows

The environmental performance of regulated businesses across the country continues to improve, according to latest figures released from the Environment Agency (EA) today.