

Press release: Ethical directors banned after withdrawing millions in contested tax scheme

Directors of a company offering Costa Rican plantation investments banned after withdrawing millions in tax from a scheme they knew was being investigated by HMRC.