

Press release: Expert animal welfare body expanded to advise Government on future reforms

The remit of an expert animal welfare body which advises Government has been expanded to provide research and advice on pets, wild animals kept by people as well as farmed animals.